

Norman P. Sellers

September 9, 1944 - September 29, 2021

On 29th of September 2021 Norman P. Sellers age 77 passed away peacefully in his home.

Norman met his Scottish bride, Anne in Saudi Arabia and they were happily married for 35 years.

He was born in Louisville, Kentucky. Graduated from Central High School and received his Aviation Airframe & Powerplant Certification from Corpus Christi. Norman was proud of his service in the United States Air Force. You didn't have to ask him about his service, you knew because he was always wearing a shirt or hat that said Air Force Retired or Vietnam Veteran. While in the Air Force, Norman excelled as a Jet Engine Mechanic eventually becoming responsible for training new Jet Engine Mechanics. Norman is a veteran of the Vietnam War and for his service, he earned the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross, Vietnam Service Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal. He served honorably for 24 years, achieving the rank of Master Sergeant.

Norman lived a very full life, traveling and making friends all over the world.

During his lifetime, he never met a stranger. He had a gift for connecting with people from all walks of life and he did this while living in Scotland, Saudi Arabi and throughout Asia. The family teased him about being a Momma's Boy, he would deny it, but he knew it was true. Norman was a great husband, a proud granddad, the warmest family member and the best of friends.

His legacy lives on in his wife, Anne; children, Norman, Yunelis, Donna; 10 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Visitation will be Saturday, Oct. 23, 2021 from 10am – 12 noon at A.D. Porter & Sons-Southeast, 4501 Bardstown Rd. with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.
