“ Opal was one of a kind...with all the characteristics that made her unforgettable...hearty laugh, a quick smile, a beautiful singing voice and a hostess whose invitations to dinner were looked forward to. You knew where you stood with Opal because she would tell you and still be your friend. Opal's family and my family were friends for as long as I can remember; both in Harlan and later when we became residents of Louisville. Our families grew old together and during my parents' final years she was a source of comfort and help to them as she was to others. We are the poorer for her passing and the richer for her having been in our lives. Rest in peace, Opal.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Opal was like family to me. A timeless legend. She was my grandmother's friend, my mother's BEST friend, and she then became my friend. When I would speak to Opal on many occasions, there was nothing I couldn't share with her. Quite often, I would bounce thoughts off of her, and she would give me so much good advice. Most often 'Debrann, don't let that stuff bother you'. Lol. I loved Opal dearly, and she will truly be missed. She lived a long wonderful life.
