“ Mr Joe; a dear neighbor and wonderful spiritual grandfather to my children. I recall the days when he and Ms Dolores would take the kids with them to church and to see the Nutcracker. With a smile, I recall the times Ms. Dolores would call us and have us run over to her house, and have Mr. Joe turn the music down; she had been trying to call him on the phone! The close nitch neighborhood would sit outside during the summer and yell back and forth to each other; just talking and laughing. Mr. Joe (a talker) fit right in. He laughed as he watched the kids play, took our children for Mickey D's and after church he and Ms. Dolores always made them ice cream floats. God blessed us, when we became their neighbors. The last time I saw Mr Joe was at his 2nd home. I asked him did he need anything and he said, “ can you make me one of your rice puddings and I did. Love you Mr. Joe! What a blessing, what a wonderful person and friend!!!! 🙏❤️
