“ I will always hold a special place for Uncle Johnny and Aunt Pan. As a child, when they visited our home it was always nothing but love and pleasantries. As we grew up, that never changed. Kids know who the truly good hearted people are and tend to draw closer to them. I remember fondly our times with Uncle Johnny, Aunt Pan, Paul, Lynn, Baby Sis, and Becky. Then, as the younger generation came along we were all so very close and saw one another all the time. I recall the bags of pastries and bread they would bring to our house of 6 kids along with the laughter and endless talking. We love you all so much still. Family is so very important and the people our Heavenly Father entrusted in our care. Sometimes, we lose sight of that until moments such as this. Take care of each other, family! YAH is watching each and every moment.

“ To the Cooper Family: JJ, Deborah, Lynn, Paul and others, We send our sincere condolences on the loss of your precious mother, affectionately known to us as, Miss Pan. We grew up as children on Osage Avenue with the Cooper Family many years ago. One, or the other of us children were friends with each one of the children, and Mr. and Mrs Cooper we're always welcoming to us. I recall Miss Pan being rather quiet spoken but she had a look and a smile then let you know she always knew what was going on. The Cooper family is a memorable in my mind because they were always so nice to be around. The corner of 25th and Osage Avenue and Saint Benedict's was a hangout for all children within a six block radius. The Cooper's lived right across the street from St Benedict along with our family and the Bell family. I want to thank all the parents in the neighborhood who looked out for one another's children. They loved us, and looked out for us, Miss Pan was one of those parents along with my mom. To JJ, Debra, Lynn and Paul Keep your Head to the Sky! The Bible promises that if we live right and to serve our Father in heaven we will see our loved ones again. God bless you all, we will all see Miss Pan on the other side on that peaceful shore... Love Always, The Judkins Family: Mom (Mrs. Ophelia, 96) Evelyn, Lorenzo, Don, Geraldine (deceased, 2017), Dale, Truzella, Jimmy and Cathy. Respectfully Submitted by Daisy (Dale) Judkins-Jennings
