

Philip L. Patterson

April 30, 1937 - April 17, 2021

Phillip Lacy Patterson, age 83, passed away peacefully on Saturday morning, April 17th, 2021, at home. He was born April 30th, 1937 to Lynferd and Lugenia (Alexander) Patterson. Phillip was a graduate of the distinguished Central High School Class of 1955. He went directly into the U.S. Navy, before returning to Louisville. He worked several different positions and professions before settling into liquor sales and retired from Southern Wine & Spirits of America.

Philip always said that he went around the world twice and enjoyed every minute. He lived his life to the fullest and always willing to share his experience. He enjoyed the arts (Broadway, concerts, literature) and the company of his friends and family.

Phillip was preceded in death by his parents James Lynferd Patterson and Lugenia Alexander McPherson, his brother James Lynferd Patterson, Jr and sister Martha Patterson Greenwell.

Phillip will be missed and remembered by his sons Stanley (Julia), Louisville, Kentucky, Phimar (Cheryl), Atlanta, Georgia, and Philo (Alexis), Tampa, Florida; seven granddaughters (Elycia Danielle, Felecia Nicole, Derisha Monique, Tateonna Symone, Jasmine, Phallen Ivy, and Paiton Elise), two grandsons (Corban Philip and Preston Elijah), and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.
