“ Saddened to learn of the passing of my elementary school classmate, the prodigious pianist and star pupil of our class. Sincere sympathies to all family and blessings on Pierre's soul. . . . Peace, be still.

“ I was saddened to learn of the recent passing of Pierre. I fondly remember our early school years together as classmates at JM Bond Elementary School. He was the school's prodigious pianist and our class's star pupil. Quite regularly throughout those years a group of 5-8 of us school buddies would walk up Walnut St from our Russell Area homes to one of the movie theaters [Lyric or Grand] at 6th St. on Saturday mornings for a day of movies and fun. Very memorable! After taking divergent paths for later school years, we were re-united in high school via my Plymouth Congregational Church's Explorer Scout Post 89 undefeated basketball team, on which he was an outstanding guard. More fun times! [See attached photo.] Deepest sympathies to surviving family and eternal blessings on Pierre's spirit and soul. Peace, be still.
