“ It won't ever get better than the Queen. Mother Mayes' presence was a stately as any royalty; her demeanor as regal as any Queen. She cared for everyone, often serving others even more than herself. She always treated us like we were her family. She always gave the best guidance and advice as we struggled with challenges. And, she knew God's way! We miss her smiles and timely encouragement. We miss and love her always! God keep and bless you always, mom!

I am so grateful of modern technology that I was able to attend the services of my dear cousin Elizabeth. My dad Holland and Queen we're first cousins. We became reacquainted about 16 years ago and she was quite pleasant in personality and appearance. She was humble while living up to her name. We had several conversations on the phone as she shared family history. She honored her parents even in their death. So it was no surprise that her son, my cousin delivered a spirit filled royal eulogy. Not to long ago she brought her extended family of the Holland descendants together a promise she kept to her dad. I pray that her vision for the family will manifest. May Queen rejoice in Heaven. Good and faithful servant. Love cousin Debra Hardison Moore ❤️🙏 ps enjoyed the service so much I watched it twice. Bless God

“ Mrs. Mayes was a godsend who showered me with love and mentoring. Although I left the city decades ago memories of Mrs. Mayes help guide me during my life. Her family has my family's deepest sympathy and thoughts as she joins Mr. Mayes in the Lord's house.

“ Miss Elizabeth was a beautiful, kind, generous person. She shared her heart with so many people throughout her life. I am thankful that she was in my life to give me advice on parenting, educating my grandchildren and staying strong in my faith. May the family stay strong during this difficult time.

My "ANGEL COUSIN LIZ", loved our GOD, her church, adored her children and grandchildren.

Teaching was her passion. A great role model and motivator who loved to see her students exceed in life.

She could light up a room with her beautiful smile and positive attitude.

She raised her children with a strong, firm, spiritual foundation surrounded by love.

Family, be strong and know she has no more pain. She is at peace with your father George again.

Sharon, Tony, Tim and I are keeping you and family in our prayers.

I loved her most dearly, Anita
