“ To The Family of Mrs. Quimiller Marshall, members of The Missionary Baptist Deacons’ Wives and Widows Council of Louisville, Kentucky and Vicinity extend our sincere condolences. We are so sorry for your loss and we are thinking of you and praying for your family as you remember and celebrate the life of your beloved mother and grandmother. Mrs. Miller served as President of The Deacons’ Wives and Widows Council from 1979-1980. We thank God for her leadership and commitment to the Council. You will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you and grant you comfort, peace and strength as you remember and reflect on the love and special times you shared.

“ My fondest memories of MS Qumiller was when my grandmother Augusta Johnson and Rev Marshall’s grandmother Ms Katie Pearson were in the K&I club and I was the driver for my grandmother to the meetings every 3rd Saturday of the month. Those ladies could cook and eat. I remember meeting Myrna in some of the bus trips our grandmothers would take us to when we were children. To the family sorry for your loss but we all thank God for our treasured memories. Love to all. Janet Washington.
