“ Deacon Gibbs was a man who loved the Lord. He would always help the Youth dept and blessed my 3 grandsons with the nicest jeans. As a matter of fact, I cherish my 2 pairs of Capri pants he gave me. I thought they were too young looking for me. But since my buddy is gone to be with JESUS, I am wearing my pants with my head up proud and classy. The Word OF Faith Family will miss him terribly. I would see faithfully working at the church. He would always stop to take time to said something smart-alec to me. 😂😂 He was the best dress Deacon in the church, not only did his suit and shoes match but his watch did too. As he informed me what each pair of shoes was made from. Lol Debbie, Ramon said he really enjoy the quiet times with you. How special your dinner times meant so much to him. I thought that was so touching and I hope you realize how very much he love you. I am praying for the whole family because everyone will be losing a void in their heart. His dreams were that his children and siblings find Jesus before it is too late...
Sincerely
Sister Janet
