“ Randal was on my staff at Xavier University and was such a blessing to us all. At his core, he was about helping others and making sure they felt included valued, loved and appreciated. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Here on earth we lost someone special, but heaven just gained an angel. I have attached a picture of him when we all played softball together. He was incredibly competitive, but was always a classy sportsman. He will be missed.

“ Randal was one of the most influential and important people in my life. He was a great friend - he challenged me I needed it, comforted me when no one could and supported me always. We saw things so very differently, and we discussed those differences frequently and freely - as only true friends can do. I will miss him tremendously, but I count myself lucky and grateful to have known him.

“ I worked with Randal at Kroger for a number of years. He worked night stock and my shift started at 5am. As I walked past Aisle 2, Randal would look up at me and say "good morning Deb" and always with that beautiful smile of his. I was upset when I learned he was retiring, but we would run into each other at the store from time to time. I'll miss my sweet friend. Rest in the arms of Jesus Randal....
