“ We have lost one of our brightest lights. My heart is broken. T was so full of love and life ... she was an inspiration to be around. She always shared her love of the Lord and her family with everyone. She never hesitated to share a funny event in her family. She spoke of her parents in almost hushed tones, she was so proud of her mom and dad. I know T is watching over all of us, especially her family. How grateful am I to have known such an amazing woman. I am a better person because of her.

“ Robert and Marita, words can not express my sincere sympathy. There are no words for the pain that you feel right now, but what I do know is that GOD is alive and he hears and knows your pain. Trust him, hold onto him and believe he will bring you through. Much love and many prayers my friend. The latch is on the outside of my home, by that I mean your always welcome. “ Bobby & Rita im so very sorry for your loss. My mother just shared with me of her passing. Words cannot express my deepest sympathy. Although I didn't see her in our adult years, I have fond memories of our youth together and hearing about her many accomplishments. Sending love and peace to you all during this difficult time.
