“ Reggie was always the life of the party at work. He had a unique way of lifting everyone up even on their worst days. He made so many people's day, mine included. There was never a dull moment with him around. We will always miss him and continue to tell all of his funny stories!

“ Dear Gammage family please accept my sincere condolences in your loss. when we loss those we love it brings great sorrow of heart. May you find comfort knowing that, as our Creator, He counts the stars and He Call the billions of them by name, even when a sparrow falls to its death, He knows it. How much more is His care for those who are made in His image. For His human creation, he always gives the hope of life, the resurrection. Rev21:4, I offer my sincere condolences to you. May your sorrow begin to heal by the exchange of comfort.
