“ He was the nicest man I know, He never met a stranger and he was my Hero! He always made me laugh and made it all better. Whether I was 6 and sitting on his knee or grown and sitting at his table having coffee, he was sharing life lessons, leaving great wisdom, singing old songs and telling the craziest stories you've ever heard. He was the most wonderful Dad a girl could ask for and forever I will be missing Him!Rest in Heaven Daddy, I will love you forever and I will see you again!Marty

“ Battle well fought Richard. The time has come for rest and to reunite with your heavenly family. I am so grateful and thankful for the many many good times we shared. Thank you for being a beautiful friend and letting me share a part of your life. Although we will miss you, we know you were tired. We will keep your memory alive in our hearts and minds, and smile every time we think of you. RIP Richard! Until we meet again. Much love! Gayle
