“ I don't care where I was or whom I was with Cousin Richard always let his presence be known. Always polite and well spoken. At a very young age from LaGrange to downtown Louisville I thought of him as a guardian angel. Both he and Cousin Ann. Such small memories made a big difference in my life. My God strengthen each of you as you cope with the loss of someone that made such an impact to so many. Coatley & Lee Family

“ Mr. Reynolds & my "Granny" the late Laurice Jean Smith were big alumni buddies as well as neighbors for a very long-time. He was always a helping hand to the both of us. Especially during my 1st pregnancy. He always asked & kept up with "the boys"! I certainly am going to miss my pal. After Granny's passing we cont'd to share books, as well many outings. He often asked of the family as he was a very endearing as well as multi-faceted man. He was quite a historian and taught me alot thru my growing years. He is gone away but shall not ever be forgotten. We will meet again soon (Reynolds)! We all loved you!

Thanks for the gracious hospitality you showed my family when we visited you in Louisville in 1972. I will always treasure our visits to the Kentucky Derby racetrack and the liquor distillery.

“ Praying continuously for the Reynolds Family. You were a Father to the Fatherless. You were like a Brother to me. Thank you for being a Great Man in our lives. We (The Carr and Watkins Family) will miss your presence. No more suffering, no more pain, safe in the arms of the Lord.

“ To the family of Mr. Reynolds: Mr. Reynolds was a very kind and caring man. We were neighbors on Magazine Street for over 25 years. There is nothing he wouldn't do for any of his neighbors. He even got my son interested in playing tennis when all he wanted to do was play video games. He talked about his grands all the time. To the young men of Mr. Reynolds, please know that your father loved you very much. May God grant you peace and comfort as you continue thru your journey of grief.
