“ Family, my deepest sympathy for the passing of our beloved Aunt Rita.

She was a very caring, patient, kind and devoted woman of GOD! A beautiful soul with great faith in our Lord and Savior JESUS the Christ.

As she let me know It was well with her soul! I can hear the FATHER saying "well done, REST my child, thy labor was not in vain".

“ You are always family. Your daughter Nikki always looked up to Kim and her friends. We had great times together probably because of you wanting Nikki to go out and have some fun. Always a loving mother ... So sorry you are aren't here but you will still follow all of us in our journeys

“ You have my special prayers. Only time will help with the grief. God knows when for all of us. I think she prepared for heaven at a very early age as I did. She is there now. Her family has my heartfelt sympathy. She's 'Gone Up Yonder'. John Zenon, Rita's brother.

“ On behalf of Christ's Church for Our Community, Theresia and I extend to the Stephenson family our heartfelt condolences. Theresia and I will not be able to attend the services, but our prayers will be ever more with the family and also with the Midwest church family during this time of bereavement. May God richly bless you all is our prayer. Sincerely, Dr. Frank M. Smith, Jr.
