“ My cousin Bobby. Big. Strong. Funny. Those are the things about him I'll remember the most. That and taking my 10 year old self, along with my younger brother and sister, and lifting us up and putting us on the garage roof. Always laughing, always our friend even though we were annoying little kids. Even though we saw each other seldom, it was like we never missed a beat. I will miss your wonderful sense of humor. Rest In Peace cousin.

Karen & Bobby III may God continue to bless. Hold on to God's unchanging hands. Bobby was a nice man always respectful of others. Some times after Sunday School we sit in the lobby resting our aching legs, waiting to go into morning service. Just perhaps discussing church activities.
