

Robert N. Mitchem IV

October 4, 1996 - March 26, 2020

Lil' Robert, as he was affectionately called, entered into this world on October 4, 1996 in Louisville, KY. That beautiful baby boy spent 23 years bringing joy to family and friends alike. Spending most of his high school years at St. Francis High School, Lil' Robert learned above all that you must tailor your life to bring you joy. Perhaps it was God's mercy to a young man whose time here would be short or perhaps it was the love infused in him by his family and friends, but Lil' Robert quite simply loved life. His ambition of being a music manager led to hours of research and development as he tried to propel the music careers of his childhood friends. Though a senseless act of violence stripped this Earth of such a Blessed soul, the family wishes only that you remember his smile, his laid back attitude, and above all the love he gave so freely and genuinely.

On March 26, 2020, God called Robert Nathaniel Mitchem IV, beloved son of Kimberly Cooper and Robert Mitchem III and brother of Alexis Cooper, home. In so doing, he left behind devastated family members including his grandparents, Mary Stevenson-Ivory, Joyce Mitchem, and Ronald Robbins; aunts, Tonya Gunn, Stacey Garvin, Marcia McGinnis, Jeri Crenshaw, La'Precious Robbins, Michelle Mitchem, and Kelly Russell; first cousins, Triniti Russell, Cranesia Williams, Gregory Gunn, Jr., Ashlee Swift, and LaBria Gunn. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Robert Mitchem II.

Due to COVID-19 the funeral and burial is private.

“ Rob was introduced to our family by our nephew, Devin, years ago. He was polite, personable, and had a smile that just instantly made you want to smile. As he came to know us and we, him, he seemed to become a part of our family. He made us laugh and joke all the time. My nephew and he were best buds, to the point that one could call them brothers. I nicknamed him, my other favorite nephew. When we saw Devin, we expected to see Rob. I was asked to critique their music videos and the new songs they wrote together. I felt special about being asked to do that as I'm a senior citizen. They had to teach me about today's music. Yet, they never seemed to tire of that. Always making me laugh about my inadequacy in this area. If I got on them about the messy room, Rob would tell me he'd have it taken care of, and soon you'd see the trash bags on the way out. Nothing that I asked him to do came back with a cross word. He became very special to us . He and Devin would plan cookouts that I didnt know anything about until the people would start showing up. Rob was in charge of the hamburgers. He told me he knew how to do it and he did. My husband who could be very picky loved Rob's burgers. We will miss Rob's smile, his quirky, but always fashionable style, his business acumen, and as a person we grew to love. His memory will forever be in our hearts and minds. Remember God never gives us more than we can bear. He is always with us.
