“ Ron was always such a bright light at Jeff High, I remember him with his sweet smile and humble character. He had a voice that would give you chills. He was always so kind, friendly and welcoming and was a great role model and leader in our theater group. It's hard to imagine why this could happen to someone so young, but I know he'll be singing in the angels choir in heaven. Prayers for his family during this difficult time.

Ron was my son's Sponcer. And in many ways my strength. I could call him and he would talk to me "the mother". He was and still is that bright light that now God is using from above. I hurt for your pain. I will keep all of f you in our prayers. I just found out today. My son and I sobbed. But we are honored and blessed to have had his sweet spirit in our lives. 💜
