“ *I remember when Ronnie invited us to see Louisville play and we met up at Ronnie house & we had some time before the game started and we were just outside talking and somehow Mr. Johnson got everyone to race. It was freezing cold outside Lol. The cold did not matter because Mr. Johnson kept pumping me up to race again 😂. I lost both times lol but good times
Thank you Ronnie & the Johnson family always being so kind and welcoming.*

“ Mr Ronnie Johnson Sr was an amazing man. He was kind, appreciative, and from what I've seen since knowing his family an amazing father and overall family man. I had the honor of meeting him through his son, my friend/brother Ronnie Jr. and the first time I met him he took me to the side and had a short genuine chat with me and I'll never forget it. Watching the Johnson family was a beautiful thing to watch it was black love at its finest. He will truly be missed but he forsure left a wonderful legacy. To his family grief has no time limit, hold on to the memories and good times they will help get you through. I won't pretend time heals all but you instead learn to deal in your own way. I love you all and will continue praying for you all.

“ Uncle Ronnie was always in a good mood. Everytime I'd walk into a room he was in he would greet me with a "STU DO" that always made me laugh. Countless times he would take us to the swimming pools and walk the Amusement parks with us. When everyone would talk about me not getting on the rollercoasters you would just laugh and say " yall know he don't like rides" you always had my back never making me do something I didnt want to do. Im forever thankful for all the memories we shared.
