

RONTREL M. LEAK

May 19, 1992 - August 21, 2013

Rontrel M. Leak, 21, passed away on Wednesday, August 21, 2013.

He is survived by his mother, Samantha Hayes; Father, Ronald Leak; Grandmother, Mary Yarber; a brother and three sisters and a host of extended family.

Visitation will be Wednesday, August 28, 2013 from 11am - 1pm with the funeral to follow at 1pm at A.D. Porter & Sons-Southeast- 4501 Bardstown Rd.; Burial will be in Louisville Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

AH

“ Rontrel,
I love you sooo much my chocolate drop. It is just so hard saying goodbye to you. You will always be in my heart. Your Auntie love you sooo much. The house is not the same without you. I know God has you and you are at peace and resting in a better place. I promise you we will not stop until we get JUSTICE!!!!!!
Love Always, Your Auntie Lee

---

Arleatha Hayes - September 10, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SH

“ Trel was a good person. I love this man so much I can't explain. He had the sweetest personality beautiful smile an always laughing I will. Miss him so much he was like a brother to me I can't believe he is not here an who would hurt him I love you rontrel we will meet again one day :(

---

shera Hayes - August 28, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AL

“ To the one person who kept it real, and kept me laughing. Im gonna miss you soo much Trel. You were taken from us too soon an unexpectedly. You will NEVER be FORGOTTEN. "Thanks for the memories Spank"

---

Alex - August 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ LETTER OF CONDOLENCE FROM Yarber and Whittemore Families in Boaz, Kentucky Samantha Hayes and Family Our heart was deeply saddened when we heard of your special love one's, Rontrel, death. Words seem so inadequate, but let us extend our heartfelt sympathy and love to your family. Families always remember that love never dies. We come at last to realize that death breaks the earthly tie, but survives when grief has passed, for love can never die. We know you will miss her deeply, but we also know that you recognize the blessings of the beautiful years you shared. We trust and hope that these years will help support and guide you during this oh-so-difficult time. We hope that when the Lord opened the window to this day that He saw us waiting and He asked: children, what is your greatest hope for today? And We responded by saying :Lord please, take care and comfort the Hayes Family in their hours of mourning and make us their angel who can help lift them to their feet since their wings are having a little trouble flying right now. You know you have our prayers, sympathy and friendship. Please turn to us for any help you might need during this sad time. Just call us if you need us. Remember the world is filled with people who care about you and are thinking about you in your sorrow. They are with you, available to you and anxious to help lighten your load. Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted. Matthew 5:4 We feel that this maybe what Rontrel would say to his family at this hour: I hold the cherished memories close to me now as I prepare to leave you. Please carry your remembrances of me in your heart and celebrate how our lives were blessed with our time together. Though I will be gone, I will live on within you, and I will watch over you. And when an occasional warm, tender feeling rushes through you for no apparent reason, perhaps that will be my spirit touching you just briefly with my love. Yours in Christ

---

Sandra Yarber and Mary Whittemore - August 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ I will always remember Rontreal and Travis (my son) playing video games at Samantha's apartment. He was Travis's first friend in Lousiville. He always had a smile on his face.

---

Jennifer Pelfrey - August 26, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RH

“ On behalf of everyone in the Y-NOW family, our sympathies go out to the entire family, including those we have known -- Samantha, Brandon, Myla, Arleatha, Corwain, Grandma -- and those we have not. We are so honored to have known Rontrel as a genuine, sensitive and caring young man. I personally will treasure the many memories I have of times spent with Rontrel, and the drawing he made for me back in 2007. He will always be in my heart. With much love. Rebecca

---

Rebecca Hentz - August 25, 2013 at 12:00 AM