

Rosalind "Rozzie" Marie Akisanmi

January 17, 1969 - July 28, 2022

Rosalind "Rozzie" Marie Akisanmi, age 53, went to be with the Lord on July 28, 2022. She was born January 17, 1969, to the late James Norman and Charlesetta Curd. Rozzie grew up in Louisville Kentucky and graduated from Butler High School in 1987. She continued her education at Galen College of Nursing where she earned a Licensed Practical Nurse degree. After school, she worked at Lyndon Woods Care and Rehabilitation and Hazelwood Residential Facility.

Caring for others was her purpose. She showed it in her work with individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and at home with her family. Rozzie would decorate and prepare an array of tasty foods for every holiday. She took advantage of any reason to be surrounded by family and friends. A lover of 70's and 80's music, she loved to sit on the porch singing to her favorite music.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her brother Norman "Brother" Charles Curd, sister Veronica "Ronnie" Brown and great nephew Mario "Peanut" Marks Jr., Rosalind is survived by her three children Charlesetta Sade Akisanmi, Angel Charmaine Olatomi Akisanmi, and David Akinkunle Akisanmi, his partner Ne'Tarra White, two grandchildren, Kamden Floyd (10) and Tayo Roberson (3), who called her "Ya Ya", two loving big sisters Marguerite Johnson and Charlotte Ballinger, and a host of other nieces, nephews, and friends.

As we lay this daughter of God to rest, may we remember her legacy.

As she would say, "Let's have a get-together!"

Please keep us in your prayers forever and always.
