“ My Dear Friend, I will truly miss you smiling face. Our worship to God together. Your pew at the building will never look the same. My love for you and your encouraging spirit will live on. My friend and my brother, may God keep you until we all get home.

“ Rudolph was my "brother" in Christ at the Eastland Church of Christ. He was a kind, friendly person who kept a low profile but was a diligent servant for the Lord. I spoke with him often and I know he had bible studies with others. He will be greatly missed from our "family" at Eastland but we hope to meet him again some day in a better world. "Blessed are those who die in the Lord...that they may rest from their labors...and their works do follow them." Revelation 14:13
