“ To Rev. Duncan and Family: My heartfelt prayers are extended to you and your family at this time. This just seems like a moment we can never prepare for. But, know that she is resting in the arms of a loving and just God. Although it is for now that we must part, the comfort is knowing that we will see Ms. Ruth again. I have experienced death of both parents, but realize that this is a road that we all must take soon or later. For now it is good night over here, good morning over there where everyday is Sunday and there is everlasting peace and joy. Ms. Ruth, rest in peace until we meet again. Rev. Duncan and family, hold up, hold out, and look up. The sun will shine again. Judith La Rone Perkins, Jeffersontown, Ky.
