

Ruth I. Robinson

July 6, 1928 - March 20, 2024

Ruth I. Robinson was welcomed to her eternal home on March 20, 2024. She was born on July 6, 1928 in Louisville, Kentucky to Henry and Barbara Fields. She was preceded in death by her husband, WWII Veteran James O. Robinson. She was also preceded in death by her identical twin sister, Virginia Commons and younger sister, Alberta Hendrix.

Ruth attended public schools and graduated from Central High School in 1946. She pursued a career in nursing as an Operating Room Nurse for nearly four decades. She loved children and following retirement became active in her community working as a volunteer at the St Joseph's Recreation Center. Prior to the COVID pandemic she worked at the Trinity Day Care - the owner referred to Ms. Ruth as the "boss" because of the discipline and respect she tried to instill into the children. She loved caring for others and provided aid and attendance to many of her medical colleagues' elderly parents as well as members of her own family.

Ruth professed her faith in Christ at an early age. She was a faithful member of Green Street Baptist Church before joining Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Dr. Thomas Henry French, Pastor Emeritus. She was a "Foxy Fashionista" always elegantly dressed in her "Sunday Best."

Ruth leaves to cherish her fond memories daughter, Lucretia; sons, Joseph, Anthony and Raymond McClenney; seven grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, family and friends especially her best buddy

Karen Porter.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, one more hug and a smile. It's very unfortunate and challenging to accept and understand why Ms Ruth left this earth so soon, or why she left before we were ready to say good-bye. But, little by little, we'll begin to remember not just that she's gone, but that she lived, and was blessed to be special. Her ways and means positively enhanced numerous lives of all kinds with many memories near and far as well as too beautiful to ever forget.

*Respectfully,
