“ I was Dorothy May during our young years together when we lived on Hale Ave. She had a beautiful voice and I would play the piano for her as we did duets at church and silver teas (home party) during our teen years. She belonged to Va. Baptist Church and I belonged to Phillips Chapel CME Church. I am 90 yrs. old now and recently heard of her passing. I extend my deepest sympathies to you her family and wish I had found out earlier about her passing. She was a wonderful friend and classmate. RSP, dear friend. I'll meet you again. Dorothy
