“ God places certain people in our lives that leave an indelible mark. Sis. Sandra Calvin was that person for me. I met her when we were in the 2nd group named to the Chestnut Street YMCA Black Achievers in 1980. We definitely connected and she inspired me in so many ways. She was a beautiful spirit-filled woman of God and a brilliant woman. I loved and respected her. God be with you Bro. Ralph and family during this difficult time. As you already do, continue to lean on the Lord and allow Him to comfort, keep and strengthen you. Rev. Linda Bunton & Family.

“ Sis. Calvin was one of God's best teachers in Canaan's Christian Education Department. She likewise served as Executive Director of Canaan's CCDC for several years with much expertise. She and her husband are Charter Disciples. I met them when I was led to im7 some 32 years ago. I have grown observing Sis. Calvin was a beautiful Christian woman of God. I appreciate all her children, grandchildren and the entire family. She will never be forgotten. Save a seat up there in Heaven! Your works will follow you. Yep, because you taught us "Only What We Do for Christ will last. Praying fo all the family... Rev. Bobby Huguley/Canaan Christian
