“ Sonya and I worked together in the JCPS community. She was kind, gracious and thoughtful under all circumstances. Her joy in life and learning was evident. The lives of many children were influenced in a positive way and it was my privilege to know her. She will be missed.

“ Sonya was a great teaching partner and friend. I'll never forget our camping trips, her flying the plane at our NASA experience, or her singing on the last day in the west wing. You're in my thoughts and prayers Justin.

“ I am just heartbroken! Sonya was so sweet! I will miss her beautiful, quick smile, her gentle demeanor and her lovely singing voice. Our soprano section will not be same without her!! My prayers go out to her family. May God wrap you in His arms and comfort your heart during this very difficult time.

“ I knew Sonya through the Hosparus Parent Loss Support Group. She had a smile and a spirit that could light the whole room. She left the group saying that she felt good about her parents and that it was time to work on her grief about her sons. Well, Sonya, you don't have to work on that grief anymore. Not only are you in the presence of God and with your parents , you are now able to hold those precious boys of yours for all of eternity. My prayers are that God sends His angels to comfort your family and friends left to carry on your legacy. May they know you are at peace.

“ I was so sorry I was unable to go to the church today to pay my respects to the family. While I know none of the family, I have the utmost respect for Sonya and am truly despairing her death. I teach at Lincoln. She was principal when I started there 11 years ago. She was a woman who had more obstacles in her life than most I know and yet, always had a smile on her face. She seemed to defeat all adversity. Even in death, she will continue to be a symbol and influence of bright strength for me.
