“ Stanley was like a son to me. Many days I would wait outside on my porch just to get him to help me. In the last few months he would call me once a week. He will always be a part of my heart. Love you son and rest in peace.

“ Stanley you were the love of my life; my best friend, my soul mate. Before we ever met I prayed to God to send me someone who would love me, and who I could reciprocate the love I had in my heart, and he sent me you. I am happy for the love that we had and shared with each other, and now my heart is broken from your loss. In time, I know that God will heal my heart and I will forever hold dear all of the moments in life that we shared. I know that now you are looking down on me from those pearly white gates above, speaking to the Lord on my behalf of our everlasting love. Rest in Peace my beloved.

“ Big Stan as he was fondly called by the family was more like a brother than a brother in-law. He was always so supportive of the family and enjoyed family gatherings. He enjoyed good food, lively conversation and laughter. I will miss the many nicknames that he so lovingly bestowed upon me and other family members. A good brother in-law, a good father, a good neighbor...that was Big Stan.

“ Your physical presence with us will be forever missed, but the memories of you, with our family will not be forgotten. I will continue to reminisce about our family gatherings, your way of reading people, :) your smile, your laughter and your support. I will forever be Perdie!! how I wish I would have asked you how I got that name. You will forever be " Big Dog" to me and Terry.
