“ Sylvia is one of the people who created memories that I will always treasure. She was a wonderful person as well as a creative teacher always interested in her students. She had a life well lived. I am sorry that distance precludes my attendance at the services, but I will be there in spirit.

“ My thoughts are with the Hannibal Family. My late husband, Otis Franklin, grew up with the Hannibal Family. He always loved your family and had tremendous respect for you. Peace.

“ *To Sylvia's family,
I am very, very sorry for your loss. I worked with Sylvia for several years at JCTC and considered her both a colleague and a friend. We occasionally had long talks, and I was always impressed by her calm, serene approach to life and work and the experiences we found. She was a valuable person.*

“ I'll never forget your work on Project FREE and the panel presentation that you, Billie and I took "on the road." You were such a joy to know, a wonderful colleague, and faithful friend. You will be missed. Gail Bonnell

“ Dear Mom,

I am grateful for the time that I had with you and am so grateful for the love you showed me. I thank God for your life and now for the peace of your spirit. Your legacy will continue to build through your grandchildren, we will keep your memory, your love, and your passion for education alive with them.

*love you,
Paula*
