My dearest Aunt Thelma. The kindest person to grace this planet. Thank you for being a huge part of my life. Until we meet again.

“ To Rachel and family: The last time that I saw your aunt was the day that I drove by and stopped to say hello while she and your mother were sweeping debris off of their property. They seemed to be so happy while they worked. It was a labor of love and respect for their neighborhood. May God keep you in His care.
