“ I worked with Thelma a number of years at Alcan on Robards lane. We kept in touch over the years until her husband's passing then we lost contact. She was a lovely, wonderful person. I will always remember a smiling Thelma with her beautiful hands and nails... My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Mrs. Brown was an elegant, kind and Godly woman. I will treasure my recent visit with her over in Dayton in my heart forever. She was that same sweet person that I met back in 1976 at the University of Cincinnati when I first met Yvonne and the rest of the Brown family. You all were blessed to have her and now she is heaven's reward! Praying for your continued strength and peace at this time.
