“ Mr. Tony, I am sad I never got to thank you for always being so welcoming and treating me and accepting me as if I was your own daughter. You waking me, Tia, and Britt up early on Saturday mornings (after we had been up all night) saying “I cooked yaw some breakfast” and then proceeding to say to me “you still here?!” (Jokingly) is one of my core memories! Thank you for sharing your beautiful daughters with me who are still my very best friends (sisters) til this very day. I will make sure to comfort and be there for them during this difficult time. Sleep in heavenly peace. Long Live Mr. Tony !

“ I met Tony thru Larry. We had some good times with him. Food, card games, music and good people. When Larry transitioned, Tony told me over and over that it will be okay. Larry loved his brother/friend, he would be heartbroken and my heart goes out to his daughters and grandchildren. Just know that he was proud of you all and loved you dearly. May God be your strength and comfort always. 🙏

Forever a good friend who we shared some great times. I often remember you getting on my last nerve coming into Joe's Palm Room . Order your favorite adult beverage( Paul Masson) calling me little girl.... Thank you for checking on me when I was battling cancer and for your words of encouragement. SIP now my friend. Sending my condolences to his 3 heart beats and the entire Wiley family
