“ *Miss B. We called her was like family to ray and I, we dressed her hair for over forty wonderful years she was very meticulous about her hair every curl and strand had to be in place her family said we spoiled her, she and her sister Mary Cole were like twins about their hair, she was an appreciative client and we had lots of fun in all those forty plus years, she loved us and we loved her. Well miss B you are home with the Lord now, where everything Including your hair is and will always be perfect and in place we know that one day we will see you again..
