“ Family meant everything to Vickie. She was part of my work family at the VA Medical Center. There were aspects to Vickie that shined like a beacon....such as her love for Marcus and Sean, her family and friends. Family meant everything to Vickie. She was known to be a God-loving, Christian woman. Her smiles radiated easily, and she shared them with everyone. She loved shopping, and could find a bargain anywhere. She loved Big Red drinks, and LOTS of sugar in her drinks (especially iced tea.....maybe 12-16 packets of sugar per drink. I was blessed to have known her. She made this world a better place.

“ To the Jones family, you have my deepest sorrow in the loss of your loved one. The sorrow we feel, when we loss those we love, bring much grief of heart. We may feel as did the Christ, as he wept over his friend Lazarus, knowing he had the power to resurrect him. Yet, He gave way to tears, because it is a hurtful enemy of us all. One day the example of that resurrection will fill the earth, just as He resurrected Lazarus all in the memorial tomb will come out.

To the family of Ms. Vickie Jones. I did not know your mother, grandmother, sister, friend, but I am a fellow Kentuckian. I am heartsick by this senseless and cruel act. I pray that peace will come some day. Today, remember the love, devotion, kind words, and the special memories of this lovely woman. Let her legacy be lived through all those who knew and loved her so very much. I am so very sorry for you tragic loss.
