“ My deepest sympathy to Cecil and the Family. I'm so sorry for your loss. Volarae was my Alto singing buddy with Greater Louisville Voices. I will never forget our 2nd year Anniversary at West End B.C. when we thought she was going to go into labor with her baby at the Concert. She was praising God so much that day. I will always remember her smiles and good heart! Now she is in the "heavenly choir."

“ Oh, my goodness Volarae, it has been over 20 years since I last saw you. I got a call here in Maryland from a close friend that you had passed. My heart is so heavy with sadness of your passing. The picture that is posted here is how I remember you from back in the day. I have such fond memories of our high school years at Ballard High and living in Villiage West back in the beautiful 1970's. I know you mom may not remember me, but Ms. Delores my prayers are with you and your family. One thing I remember from those days is that you adored your daughter Volarae, and she surely adored and loved you. God Bless Tanya F. Hamilton-Ellis
