“ Will and his community contributions for advocating and supporting entrepreneurs and small business development shall never be forgotten. His Leadership and Mentoring has impacted the lives of many in our local, state, and national, Minority Business Community. May God bless his family and legacy with the peace "that surpasses all understanding" as his Gentle Spirit was!As the former President of the Louisville Branch NAACP, Will's collaboration and community training, afforded him receiving , "The Presidents Award " for supporting the development of Minority Business. He was a wealth of information that shall be missed!
