“ Six years later and your earthly presence is still missed. You were a giant in the way you loved students, inspired staff and co-workers. Gone too soon but you left a legacy of standards to live successfully. See ya on the other side my friend.

“ Bill was a childhood friend. He loved the game of basketball and we loved seeing him play. We lost touch after high school and I'm thankful that the world of Facebook opened the door to greet each other again.

Teresa, sis you were almost like a certain reaction to my heart, because I know too well no amount of words can give you comfort save the word of God. I pray for you and your peace and wsn't you to know I'm right here to listen if you need to pull an ear, and arms open wide however I may help. Much love to you and the children.

“ Bill was a Caseworker for Big Brothers when I was the Executive Director back in the 1980's. He was a hard worker with a good heart for children. He had my respect as a non profit professional, volunteer Big Brother, and as a confident man. In a word, he was solid. While we lost touch over the years, Bill was also a friend. I am sad that he died. I also remember that while he was serious about his work, he could also laugh and show his big, broad smile. That was a joy. That is how I choose to remember him- solid with a smile.
