“ William Aka Papa T Pops so many names come to mind I miss you so much already.. Snickers will miss his buddy! You were a good man in my book. I will hold dear in my heart all of our heart to heart conversations about life and love and projects! I'm so glad that I had a chance to really get to know who you really were inside! I'm grateful for the bond you had with Alexis & Jade'A. Now you can go fishing and hunting all you want behind those pearly gates! God be with you..

“ Tonilt has been many years but I have never forgotten you. I fondly remember many days working with you in the ICU at St. Anthony and vividly recall visiting you in that beautiful apt on Broadway when little Wm was just a baby. I am so sorry to read this news, my deepest sympathy to you and your family. May God bless you and be with you, Elaine (McGraw RN ICU)
