

William Franklin "Buddy" Squires, Jr. (Downtown)

September 1, 1945 - March 10, 2024

William Franklin "Buddy" Squires, Jr., 78, passed away Sunday, March 10, 2024. He was a member of Little Flock Missionary Baptist Church and an Army Veteran. Mr. Squires is survived by his children, Jenise Squires, William Squires, III (Stephanie), Stacey Smith, April McDaniel, Marion Squires and Trina Hargrove; longtime companion, Ethel L. Squires; 16 grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Visitation Only: 4pm-7pm Monday, March 18, 2024, at Little Flock Missionary Baptist Church, 1030 S. Hancock St.

Previous Events

Visitation Only

MAR 18. 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM (ET)

Little Flock Missionary Baptist Church
1030 S. Hancock St.
Louisville, KY 40203

Tribute Wall

LW

“ Squires (which is what we always called him) was a loyal, trustworthy, longtime friend of my brother Bill (James Watkins). Squires was always there in time of need. He will be greatly missed. --With our prayers and heartfelt condolences,
Linda Watkins & Family

Linda Watkins - March 18, 2024 at 07:23 PM

H(

“ Harriett Nicholson (Bunny) planted a Memorial Tree in honor of William Franklin “Buddy” Squires, Jr. (Downtown).

Harriett Nicholson (Bunny) - March 14, 2024 at 06:43 PM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of William Franklin “Buddy” Squires, Jr. (Downtown).

March 14, 2024 at 06:21 PM

-W

“ --From Linda and Willie J. Watkins planted a Memorial Tree in honor of William Franklin “Buddy” Squires, Jr. (Downtown).

--From Linda and Willie J. Watkins - March 14, 2024 at 06:21 PM

JB

“ My condolences to the entire family of Bro.Squires. I met Squires at Lorillard Tobacco Company. We went from coworkers to Friends. We all will miss Him. Rest Easy My Brother, Rest Easy. James E. Buyck. (Dead Squirrel Road)

James E. Buyck - March 13, 2024 at 08:18 AM