“ I love you Pop. You were the only person in my life who "truly" knew where my heart and mind was at all times. You never judged me and always believed in my integrity as a man even when most everyone else did not. I told you in life that if I become a quarter of the man you were I will consider my life worth living. I praise God that you lived long enough to know that I have been vindicated. I will spend the rest of my life attempting to live up to your legacy of LOVE AND LEADERSHIP the very best I can. I'll close with the first quote you ever taught me: "The best comes to those who wait." I know it was you that asked the Lord to bless me for "waiting." You live on through "your boy" and you are always in my heart. Love you, KIP

“ Ms. Viola: Life has an entrance and an exit. Just this Sunday afternoon Brother Bill made an exit to where there is no more sorrow, just everlasting joy. While I am deeply saddened by Brother Bill's passing, I find a solace in knowing that although we must part, it is not for long. Ms. Viola, I know you to be a strong woman of God, so just hold up, hold out and look up. Rest in peace Brother Bill and I will see you some glad morning. Ms. Viola, if there is anything I can do, please call me. Judith La Rone Perkins, Jeffersontown, Ky. 40299
