“ It truly is an honor and a blessing having served with Sergeant Crosby. She taught me the importance of treating others with respect to earn respect. She taught me to admit mistakes, correct them and move on. She showed everyone around her what a wonderful heart she had to share with everyone. She was the epitome of what our country is in need of today...love and strength. You are watching over us now and I feel your light shining upon me. Sharon Lynch

“ I was just told today that Willie Mae had passed and words cannot express how deeply saddened I was to hear that the world has lost such an amazing woman. Willie Mae mentored me when I joined the Army in 1993. She taught me, scolded me and mothered me, she is much of the reason that I'm a successful soldier to this day and that I'm able to teach and train soldiers in the same manner in which Willie Mae taught me. She will be truly missed as not only my sister in arms, but also my friend. RIP beautiful lady, you will be missed!!

“ Like a tender leaf Sergeant Cosby mentor me and other young soldiers in the 80's. The love and compassion she shared with the Soldiers of the 100th Reception Battalion was always with a motherly touch.Sergeant Cosby was always willing to help those in need. Sergeant Cosby taught me about military life. Forever grateful, Rudolph Stone.
