“ My mother, Ruth Carr, who passed away two years ago, was a great friend of Willie Mae's. And they loved to visit with one another in Ladies' Bible Class at Church. They both loved fresh pears and we had a great old pear tree in our yard on Ormsby Lane. My mother would often give Willie Mae a sack of pears in the fall. One time, Willie Mae sat down by my mother and said, "Oh Lord, I've about made myself half sick from those pears you gave me, Ruth" My mother thought that was so funny and affectionately repeated that story to all of us in our family. The two of them had a great friendship and I know they having a few laughs together in heaven. Best wishes to a wonderful family. Joe Carr
