“ I was almost three years old when I first met Spring. She was the baby doll lying on the bed that neither her mother no mine would allow me to play with, no matter how much I wanted to. I knew better than to ask questions about their decision. I had no idea the impact se would have on my life. She was the sister I did not have, my encourager, supporter, source of laughter among many things. I am going to miss her presence, strength and her GOD spirit. We were prayerful together over many, many, many things and I was honor when she ask me to pray for her in what turned out to be her last days of life. I am satisfied in knowing that she is with the Lord living out the promises he made to us to receive us into the kingdom when our spirit leaves the body. You will be surely missed!

“ I will always remember Spring's kind thoughtfulness to people at the library who were suffering. She would send messages out to keep us all connected and updated, which helped us draw together like a family. I will also think of Spring every time I see a fireman.

To the Brown family: You are an awesome family. Strong, courageous, good-humored, kind, tender and loving. I am honored to know you and proud to think of you as friends. I know you will weather this storm as you have many others. May God bless you through this. Love, Nan
