“ I grew up in Washington, DC with Pixie and her family. My mother and her mother was very good friends, we consider ourselves cousins. I some with Pixie a couple of days before our heavenly father said my good and faithful servant it's time to rest. She sent me a cd that her father had recorded us singing and having so much fun. Every time I spoke with her we laughed so much. I'll miss those calls. Love you my sweet lil cousin Delores Robinson!

“ Paul and family, your precious wife, mother, daughter, sibling and friend was a very special person. She had a great sense of humor, and was a caring, compassionate woman. She and I had a few conversations about mutual problems, and those conversations always seemed to help both of us. She was the life of any party and just a really good loving person, which you all know. My prayers and good thoughts are with all of you. Sam Alvey
